

Patchwork Musings – 2009

Volume 8

T H E P O E T S A N C T U A R Y

Contained within these pages are the favorite works of our many authors who were generous enough to lend their time and talent in helping us make this collection a successful endeavor.

Founded on June 24, 2002 The Poet Sanctuary emerged onto the internet as a place where amateur and professional poets alike could present their work into the eye of the public, unknowing that established years down the road, many of its poets would soon be calling it their home.

Through open arms, we have welcomed poets of all types to our poetic haven. The poetry contained within the confines of our community touches on many different aspects of daily life and even those magical realms which many of us wondrously seek.

Captured within the pages of our seventh publication, you will find a wide range of poetic material. As you read, take note that many of the following works are more than just ink spilled upon a page and that you are holding the souls of not one, but a group of talented writer's in your hands, a community where each poet has his/her own story to tell.

Thank you for your interest in our book!

Note: World copyright of each poem rests with its original author. The Poet Sanctuary does not claim rights to any poetry contained within this publication and authors are free to publish their poetry elsewhere. All material is protected and cannot be used in any manner without prior permission of the respective original authors. Poems were submitted with permission from each individual. The views of the contributing poets in this publication do not necessarily reflect the views of the editor and The Poet Sanctuary.
